100 Less, C-C Plans Anyhow

PAHOKEE — Notwithstanding 100 members delinquent in dues and more than $1,000 short in the new budget, Pahokee Chamber of Commerce directors Monday night planned to erect more advertising signs to help tourists find their way to and through Pahokee.

Memberships are far below par this year despite more activities than ever before in the Chamber year, President M. P. Stanley told directors. He asked that all members who have not as yet paid their 1955-56 dues do so immediately.

A special committee was appointed at Monday night's meeting to start a search for an optometrist to practice here, and to look further into the dentist and doctor situation.

A nominating committee to select candidates for four directors' terms to begin in October was named by Stanley, including Leonard Dobrow, chairman, Curtis Chase, Mrs. Alma W. Farrow, and William S. Plumer.

Establishment of a merchants' welcome program for new residents was discussed, and will be considered further by Office Secretary Mae Pope and a committee.

MAYOR NAMES 2 TO HOUSING BD.

PAHOKEE — Mayor Lewis Friend has announced the appointment of Leonard Dobrow and Bob Apelgren to the board of commissioners of the Pahokee Housing Authority.

They replace L. J. Fraser and Robert Chamberlain, whose terms have expired. The new commissioners will serve four-year terms.

The Housing Authority's annual meeting will be held next Wednesday evening. Executive Director James W. Vann announced this week. Commissioners will hold a business meeting at 6 p.m. at Vann's office, followed by a dinner for members, camp managers, their wives, and invited guests at the Edelweiss.

Pahokee "Sky Watch" Sat.

PAHOKEE — A 12-hour session of sky-watching is on the program for Pahokee civil defense members of the Ground Observer Corps tomorrow from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m., according to Mrs. Leon Spooner, post supervisor.

3 TWISTERS IN A WEEK in the Glades, and "Connie" boiling south of here should make residents happy to know that all gaging stations in Lake Okeechobee have been put in readiness by Army Engineers. In the picture above, an Engineer checks the instruments which record wave heights, wind speeds, and wind direction. Local series of twistlers started Friday in Pahokee, hit Belle Glade Tuesday, and paid a visit to South Bay Wednesday. Casualties were part of the roof of the Upthegrove Grocery and $300 damage to H. M. McIntosh's car, in Pahokee; a group of heavy hay wagons tossed along and into the Hillsboro Canal at Wedgworth's shop in Belle Glade; a mile-long path of sugar cane leveled at SR 717 and 80 at South Bay.

Motel Owners' Meet Hears Elliott Describe Theirs As Top Industry

PAHOKEE — Motel business is one of the leading industries of Florida today, B. Elliott told a meeting of Palm Beach County chapter of the Florida Motel Owners Association here yesterday.

More than a quarter of a million visitors can sleep in motels in one night in Florida, the former state representative and present owner of two Hollywood Beach motels told his audience.

B'Water Building Starts In 2 Weeks

PAHOKEE — Work at the site of the new $200,000 breakwater in Lake Okeechobee will begin here within two weeks, Engineer Kenneth Mock has informed City Attorney Ralph O. Johnson.

Cleary Bros., the contractors, have started fabrication of the steel units in their shop, he said.

A major holdup in the delivery of the steel piling has delayed the start of work at the waterfront. The obtaining of this material is taking six weeks from the day the building contract was signed, Mock reported.

The industry's total investment is $500,000,000, the speaker said. He itemized such items as the supply of 500,000 bars of soap needed daily, as well as 300,000 clean sheets. The motel's annual income is $130,000,000 in this state, Elliott said. Mr. and Mrs. Don Hillier were hosts for the meeting.

First Slaughter-House In Glades Opens Soon

BELLE GLADE — The first slaughter-house in the Glades, the Kunkel Meat Co., will be in operation here by mid-August, and Owner Robert J. Kunkel will realize completion of three years of planning.

Located two miles north of Belle Glade and half mile south of Glades Livestock Market at the old ramie plant, the slaughter-house will have a potential capacity of 250 cattle per week. Kunkel is opening it with a 50 per week capacity.

GLADES POSTS COMMENDED

MIAMI — The efforts of two American Legion Posts "deep in the heart of the Everglades" to assure veterans driving to and from the 1955 national convention here Oct. 10-13 that they can't possibly get lost were lauded this week by Convention Chief Joe H. Adams.

Adams said he now has double assurance of the touring Legionnaires' welfare in traversing the Everglades they may have read about but probably will not have seen before. The latest comes from Pahokee which has followed the earlier lead of Belle Glade in the statewide Legion "welcome mat" and chain of hospitality stops. "Co-operating with the auxiliary, Pahokee Memorial Post 90 will be open to visiting Legionnaires", advised J. R. McQueen, adjutant. "Welcome signs will be displayed."

Survey Group For Migrants

BELLE GLADE — The City of Belle Glade took a long stride toward dealing with its migrant citizens on a permanent basis, with the appointment last week by City Commission of a migrant fact-finding committee.

Commission had requested the Inter-Racial Council for a report and recommendations on what could be done to bring about a more ideal community living for migrant residents.

The report as approved by Commission at its July 26 meeting recommended that committees be named to find both the available resources and the existing needs for improved migrant living. Coordination and activation of the resources was recommended, as was the setting up of an agency to disseminate and use the information to be obtained.

Ultimately Dir.

Recommended ultimately was the employment of a paid director for the city's migrant "business."

The committees, in eight categories, named by the commission to get on with the fact-finding include the following, (Continued On Page 8)

Kunkel who is from Binghamton, N.Y., has been in the meat company business about 15 years, having started buying cattle at the age of 14. His father sold his plant to Swift & Co., and decided three years ago that the Glades was the ideal place for a new location.

Father Started

He started here from Pennsylvania in March of 1954, according to his son, but died en route. Now the younger Kunkel is opening the plant his father envisioned, after several months of looking over sites and making preliminary plans.

Equipment is being installed in the building, which has been passed by the Florida State Board of Health and the Florida Livestock Board. A 2,000 cu. ft. cooler has already been put in.

Kunkel plans not only to serve local markets by making the higher grades of local beef available, but he will custom slaughter for Glades families' home freezers. On custom dressing, he plans a service to include complete butchering and preparing for freezing, or as much of the whole procedure as the customer wants.

Manager George C. Young of the livestock market said this week, "The establishment of this slaughter-house is a new milestone in the development of the cattle industry in the Glades, and will provide an additional outlet which will result in more uniform prices being received by the cattlemen."

Mr. and Mrs. Kunkel have four children. They plan to make their home in Belle Glade.

BAMBOOZZLE THE BAMBOO OUT OF GEORGIA?

Somebody better tell the state of Georgia that two Palm Beach County agricultural agents are thoughtfully circling the peach state area now considered to be "the capitol of bamboo farming."

M. U. Mounts and H. L. Speer are making a trip to Georgia to study bamboo-growing method with an eye to adding that product to other muck-farming triumphs. They feel that bamboo could be grown more satisfactorily in the Glades than where it now grows in Georgia.

WASHINGTON NEWSLETTER

By Sen. George Smathers

WASHINGTON—As the Supplemental Appropriations Bill passed the Senate this week, I am happy to report that it contained an appropriation of $11,577,000 for the construction of the proposed Buckingham Weapons Base at Ft. Myers. Senator Holland, Congressman Rogers and I will exert every possible effort to retain this appropriation in the bill as finally approved. At this time, the situation looks optimistic.

TRIP-LEASE ADVANCING: I was glad to be able to give the trip lease bill a big push towards passage this week when we were able to get the Senate Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee to report my amended bill favorably. This legislation would allow agricultural truckers to continue to trip-lease on a return home after having carried agricultural products, livestock and fish to market centers. This practice is extremely beneficial to the citrus industry and all agricultural interests in Florida for it permits quick and flexible transportation of perishable crops resulting in a considerable saving to not only the farmer, but consumer as well. I expect this amended bill will be debated on the Senate floor early next session.

NAVY NEWS: I have received assurances from the Department of Navy that there are no plans to remove the coordinating control of the awarding and administration of architectural engineering and construction contracts from the Office of the Public Works Officer, Naval Air Base, Pensacola, or to in any other way modify the work and operations of that office with regard to engineering and construction work. I was further assured that the Public Works Officer at Pensacola would at all times have complete information and local control over all phases of public works projects in the area, and that the office would have delegated authority to perform advanced planning for anticipated Public Works Projects, to initiate projects, to submit lists of architectural engineering contractors for each project, select architectural engineering firms and negotiate fees, and to recommend award to the District Public Works Office. In addition, the Department of Navy has reassured me that Florida architectural engineering and construction firms would receive fair and impartial consideration on all work projects in Florida. These assurances were the results of a conference held in my office this week with officials of the Department of Navy.

BY SCHATZI

Well, another day, another amazement.

Such as Sunday, when I spent the day with four midgets.

And what a morale-builder THAT is for a dog who only runs about 10 inches high!

It was a real pleasure to shake paws with a man three feet eight inches tall. I didn't even have to stand on my hind legs to do it.

These four little people live in Miami. Two of each live in full-size houses next door to each other, and their living rooms are furnished full-size, too, so that the hulking people who visit the midgets don't feel shrinkage coming on.

But I wandered into their bedrooms, and into the kitchen, and that's another story. Their kitchen tables are low enough that I could get right up to it and almost lap from the faucet.

The bedrooms look, also, like kids' rooms, with closet hangers low-down, and tiny little bureaus instead of those great big things. And the beds—just great—didn't even have to make the usual big jump.

The four little people made the bosses and me feel right at home, and I even sat at the kitchen table. The bosses (whose backs were breaking from bending over) stood, and then finally vanished into the big people's living room.

If I ever get another vacation, I'm going to trot right down to Miami and spend all my time with the little people.

It's not only that it's nice to find somebody a dog's own size, but I have finally seen the living truth of that old cliché, "Good things come in small packages."

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST, Belle Glade CHRISTIAN SCIENCE GROUP, Canal Point

The fact that spiritual understanding of God results in practical goodness, health, and power will be stressed at Christian Science services Sunday.

Readings from the King James Version of the Bible and "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy comprise the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Spirit."

Among the passages to be read from Science and Health is the following (99:23): "The calm, strong currents of true spirituality, the manifestations of which are health, purity, and self-immolation, must deepen human experience until the beliefs of material existence are seen to be a bald imposition, and sin, disease, and death give everlasting place to the scientific demonstration of divine Spirit and to God's spiritual, perfect man."

The Golden Text is from Ephesians (5:9): "The fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth."

SUGAR BREAK FOR U.S. GROWERS OUT

Efforts to give American sugar growers a break by upping their quotas died ingloriously in Washington this week, trampled under the feet of Senators hurrying to adjourn.

Rep. Paul Rogers and a group of Congressmen on the House side had several days earlier managed passage of a similar sugar bill by that body. However, despite the efforts of Sen. Spessard Holland and other legislators from sugar-producing states, the high-import bloc held in the Senate, and the bill died with adjournment of this session.

$500 Reward For Vandalism Info

PAHOKEE — The board of directors of Pahokee Builders, Inc., has voted a reward of $500 to anyone giving information to the FBI or police which will result in the arrest and conviction of the party or parties guilty of recent vandalism in five houses being constructed by the company in Ridge Crest Gardens subdivision.

T. W. Knight, secretary-treasurer of the company, announced the directors' action. Extensive damage was done to the unfinished houses the night of July 9, and thus far, no clues have pointed to the identity of the vandals.

MRS. SCHOEPEL ROTARY SPEAKER

PAHOKEE — Mrs. Mildred Schoepel addressed the regular weekly luncheon meeting of the Pahokee Rotary Club last Thursday.

Introduced by M. P. Holman, chairman of the Rotary welfare fund committee, Mrs. Schoepel spoke on welfare work in the Pahokee area, explaining phases of welfare handled by the state and county workers and outlining problems involved in serving the needy. She praised the club for the welfare funds that it had provided, pointing out that these funds had made it possible for welfare workers and nurses to help certain cases that other sources did not reach.

A park committee was appointed by the president to investigate ways of improving the lake front park area and to select a possible site in the Pahokee-Canal Point area for locating a state wayside park.
